MEMBERSHIP AND ACCOUNT AGREEMENT

In this Agreement, the words "you," "your," "Party," and "Owner" mean any person or entity who signs an Account Card or any other application in connection with the opening of any Account with Advancial Federal Credit Union, any such person or entity who maintains an Account with us, or any other person or entity authorized to use or having access to any such Account. The words "we," "us," "our" and "Credit Union" mean Advancial Federal Credit Union.

In this Agreement, and in your Truth-in-Savings Account Disclosures and Rate and Fee Schedules, the term "Savings Account" may be used to describe your Share Accounts with us, and the term "Checking Account" may be used to describe your Share Draft Accounts with us.

You authorize us to establish one or more Accounts for you or on behalf of third parties as designated in your Account Card or in any other Account application you may execute with us (the "Application"), including without limitation, any Savings Account, Checking Account and any Share Certificate Account. If you are unable to provide a Social Security Number or other Taxpayer Identification Number at the time of Account opening, we may suspend the opening of your Account or you may request a non-dividend bearing Account until your Social Security Number or other Taxpayer Identification Number is provided. By opening or using any such Account, you agree to be bound by the terms of this Agreement whether you are acting in your individual capacity, in a fiduciary capacity, or in your capacity as an officer, agent, or representative of any business entity or organization. You also acknowledge receipt of and agree to be bound by our Truth-In-Savings Account Disclosures and Rate and Fee Schedules as amended from time to time and to conform to our rules, regulations, bylaws and policies now in effect and as amended or adopted hereafter. In case of any conflict between the terms of this Agreement and the disclosures set forth in the Truth-In-Savings Account Disclosures and Rate and Fee Schedules, the Truth-In-Savings Account disclosures will control. The Truth-In-Savings Account Disclosures and Rate and Fee Schedules are incorporated into this Agreement. This Agreement is incorporated into and made a part of any Application or other document you execute or receive in connection with the opening or use of any Account.

Truth-in-Savings Disclosures

Truth-in-Savings Disclosures that apply to each of your Accounts, including the dividend rate and the annual percentage yield on your Accounts, are set out on the Truth-in-Savings Account Disclosures and Rate and Fee Schedules accompanying this Agreement.

Account Ownership

1. Single Party Accounts. Under this type of Account ownership, the sole Party to the Account owns the Account. If you open a Single Party Account, upon your death and absence any Payable on Death (P.O.D.) designation, ownership of the Account passes as part of your estate under your will or by intestacy.

2. Multiple Party Accounts. If an Account is opened by two or more Parties, or if one or more Parties are added to a Single Party Account after the Account is opened, the Account will be a Joint or Multiple Party Account. The Parties to the Account own the Account in proportion to the Parties' net contributions to the Account. Payment to any Party shall be valid and discharge the Credit Union from any and all liability for such payment. The Credit Union may accept instructions from any Party or act at the request of any Party with regard to any such Account without the consent of any other Party to the Account. Each Party authorizes all other Parties to the Account to act on his or her behalf with respect to the Account and to endorse any instrument payable to him or her for deposit to any such Account. Without the consent or joinder of any other Party and without regard to the interest in the Account of any other Party, any Party to the Account may (i) make deposits to or withdraw funds from the Account, (ii) place stop payment orders with respect to any items drawn on the Account by any Party to the Account, (iii) pledge all of the shares or deposits in an Account to secure any indebtedness owing to us, or (iv) designate an Account to provide overdraft protection for any other Account.

A member in whose name a Joint or Multiple Party Account is opened, who designates other Parties to own the Account jointly, may change Parties to the Account, add Parties to the Account or remove any Parties from the Account. At its option, the Credit Union may require that an Account be closed and a new Account opened in lieu of permitting a member to remove any Party from an Account, or the Credit Union may require the consent of any Party prior to acting upon any written notification or instruction by member to remove that Party from an Account. No other Party to a Joint or Multiple Party Account may make any such change, addition or deletion except that any Party to a Joint or Multiple Party Account may always remove themselves from the Account. The Parties agree that the Credit Union may pay funds in any Joint or Multiple Party Account to or on the order of any Party, regardless of whether any such Party is incapacitated or deceased. The Credit Union makes no representation concerning the legal consequences or effectiveness of the survivorship rights described below, including any consequences arising out of the community property laws of any state and you agree to hold us harmless from any loss or liability in connection with any survivorship designation. You understand that you should consult with a qualified attorney if you have any question regarding the validity, effectiveness or fitness of any such survivorship designation for any purpose.

(a) Multiple-Party Account with Right of Survivorship.

An Account will be a Multiple-Party Account with Right of Survivorship if you have so elected and indicated on any Account Card, Account authorization, or signature card, or if any such card otherwise represents that the Account is held jointly with right of survivorship. All funds deposited into any such Account, including any earnings thereon, shall be owned by the Parties jointly with all others who signed the Application, authorization or signature card, with right of survivorship. On the death of a Party, all sums in the Account on the date of the death vest in and belong to the surviving Party or Parties as their separate property and estate. The interest of the surviving Parties is subject to any lien the Credit Union has for a deceased Party's obligations and any security interest the deceased Party gave in the Account funds, regardless of whether the surviving Parties consented to the security interest.

(b) Multiple-Party Account without Right of Survivorship.

An Account will be a Multiple-Party Account without Right of Survivorship if you have so indicated on any Account Card or other Application, or if any such instrument otherwise fails to expressly indicate that the Account is held jointly with right of survivorship. On the death of a Party, the Party's ownership of the Account passes as a part of the Party's estate under the Party's will or by intestacy, subject to any lien the Credit Union has for the deceased Party's obligations and any security interest the deceased Party gave in the Account funds.

3. Payable on Death (P.O.D.) Accounts.

A P.O.D. Account is an Account payable on request to one or more persons during their lifetimes and upon the death of the last of those persons, payable to one or more P.O.D. payees named in the Application or any other document executed in connection with the Account. You agree that the persons named as P.O.D. payees in any Application or Payable on Death Agreement, whether one or more, are designated as P.O.D. payees. During your lifetime, all funds paid into or deposited into the designated Account, including any earnings thereon, shall be owned by you and payment may be made upon your request or the request of any Party to the Account. If there is more than one Owner, then during your lifetimes the provisions set forth above with regard to Joint or Multiple-Party Accounts shall control. Upon your death (the death of the last of you to survive), each P.O.D. payee agrees that all such funds shall be owned by the P.O.D. payees surviving with right of survivorship. Payment may be made at the request of any named P.O.D. payee then living, and any payment made upon the request of any surviving P.O.D. payee discharges us from any and all liability to that P.O.D. payee and any remaining P.O.D. payees or their heirs, executors and personal representatives. You, your heirs, executors and personal representatives agree to defend, indemnify and hold us harmless from any claim asserted by any person or estate as a result of the payment of funds deposited in the designated Account. You understand and agree that a P.O.D. designation shall be ineffective with respect to any Account held in an Individual Retirement Account. You understand and agree, further, that a P.O.D. designation may be ineffective unless signed by all original Parties to the Account. We make no representation concerning the legal consequences or effect of any P.O.D. designation, and you understand that you should consult with your attorney if you have any questions regarding the validity or effectiveness of any such P.O.D. designation for any purpose.

4. Accounts for Trusts. At our option, we may issue shares or accept deposits in the name of a revocable trust subject to such membership requirements as we may impose from time to time in keeping with applicable law. If you request that we open an Account in the name of a trust, you agree that we are authorized to release the funds in any such Account upon the signature of any Trustee. You agree that if we make payment to any Trustee or Successor Trustee, or at the direction of any one of the Trustees or Successor Trustees named, that payment shall be valid and shall discharge us from any liability for the sums paid. You agree that we shall have no fiduciary responsibility or obligation in connection with any such Account beyond our obligations set forth in this Agreement, and that we shall serve solely as a depository for the trust funds. You and any Trustee agree to save, indemnify, defend and hold us harmless from any claim, demand, suit or other charge by any person arising out of or resulting from the establishment, maintenance and transaction of any business related to the trust and any Account established for the trust.

5. Uniform Transfers to Minors Accounts. At our option, we may issue shares and accept deposits in Accounts established by a custodian under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act (UTMA). A UTMA Account is owned by the minor, and amounts deposited into the Account constitute an irrevocable gift to that minor. The custodian named is the sole Party entitled to access the Account for the minor's benefit. We have no duty to (i) determine if the person designated or acting as custodian has been duly designated, (ii) determine if an act of the custodian is in accordance with or authorized by the Texas Uniform Transfers to Minors Act, (iii) question the validity or propriety of any instrument or any instructions executed or given by a person acting as a donor or custodian or (iv) oversee the application by a custodian of money or other property paid or delivered to the custodian.

6. Accounts for Minors. At our option, we may issue shares and accept deposits in the name of a minor. We may require that a minor Account have a creditworthy joint owner at least 18 years of age who shall be jointly and severally liable for any amounts owing to us out of the Account. We may make payments or deliver other rights solely to the minor without regard to the minor's minority, and you acknowledge and agree that we are discharged from liability to the extent of any such payment or delivery. We have no duty to inquire of the use or purpose of any transaction requested by the minor or any joint owner. If you request that we open a minor Account on which the minor's parent or guardian will not be a joint owner, we may require the parent or guardian's consent before opening the Account. We may also require that the Account Owners give written consent to allow the minor's parent or guardian to access information about the Account. You may not pledge a minor Account as collateral for a loan or for any other purpose. When the minor reaches the age of 18, we will not change the form or ownership of the Account without the authorization of all Account Owners.

7. Business, Association and Organization Accounts. At our option, we may issue shares and accept deposits in the name of a business, association or organization upon such terms and conditions and upon such membership requirements as we may establish from time to time. In the event that the Credit Union permits the opening of such an Account, and if you establish a business, association or organization Account, you agree to provide us with such documentation as we may require. You agree that we may rely upon the signature of any person authorized to transact business on behalf of any such business, association or organization and that any such authorization shall continue in effect until we receive written notice from you and give written acknowledgment of the receipt of the revocation thereof. The Credit Union shall not be liable for any loss occasioned by the fraud, negligence or misapplication of funds on the part of any officer, director, employee or agent of any such business, association or organization. You and any person authorized to sign on the Account agree to save, indemnify, defend and hold us harmless from any claim, demand, suit or other charge by any person arising out of or resulting from the establishment, maintenance and transaction of any business related to the business, association or organization and any Account established therefor.

8. Accounts for Guardianships and Estates. At our option we may issue shares and accept deposits in the name of (i) a ward on whose behalf a Guardianship has been established under applicable law or (ii) the estate of a deceased member being administered under applicable law.

Any guardian or estate representative (whether executor, administrator or otherwise) authorized to sign on any such Account shall be subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and any other agreement governing any such Account. You agree that we will have no fiduciary responsibility or obligation in connection with any such Account beyond our obligations otherwise set forth in this Agreement or other applicable agreement and you agree that we will not be liable for any loss occasioned by the fraud, negligence or misapplication of funds by the guardian or estate representative. If we are presented with Letters of Guardianship, Letters Testamentary or Letters of Administration valid on their face, you agree that we will have no further duty to (i) determine if the person appointed guardian or estate representative has qualified or continues to be qualified as guardian or as estate representative, (ii) determine if an act of the guardian or estate representative is in accordance with or authorized by the Texas Probate Code or other applicable law, (iii) question the validity or propriety of any instrument or any instructions executed or given by a person acting as a guardian or estate representative or (iv) oversee the administration by a guardian or estate representative of money or other property paid or delivered to him or her. You agree that we may rely upon Letters of Guardianship, Letters Testamentary or Letters of Administration that are valid upon presentment, that we may continue to rely upon the same without inquiring into their expiration or renewal and that we may assume their renewal unless notified in writing to the contrary. Further, you agree that we will have no obligation to recognize or honor any such Letters that we know to have expired without renewal pursuant to the provisions of the Texas Probate Code or other applicable law. If we receive notice of expiration without renewal, we will have no obligation to honor any check that is presented for payment or to honor any requests for withdrawal of funds from the Account of a ward or an estate until we receive renewed Letters or another order issuing out of a Court of competent jurisdiction.

9. Social Security Representative Payee Accounts. At our option, we may issue shares and accept deposits in Accounts established in a member's name and for the member's benefit by an individual appointed as a Social Security "Representative Payee." Funds in a Social Security Representative Payee Account are owned by the member beneficiary. Only the Representative Payee, however, shall have direct access to the funds on deposit. If an Account is opened, you (whether as beneficiary or as Representative Payee) agree that we may accept deposits including direct deposits from the Social Security Administration, that we may permit withdrawals from the Account by the Representative Payee through such means as we may prescribe from time to time, and that we may restrict access to the Account by the beneficiary. You agree that the Representative Payee alone will be responsible for compliance with the Rules of the Social Security Administration governing such Accounts. You agree that if we make payment to or at the direction of a Representative Payee, any such payment shall be valid and shall discharge us from any liability for the sums paid. You agree that we may rely upon any appointment of a Representative Payee that is valid on its face, that we will have no fiduciary responsibility or obligation in connection with any such Account beyond our obligations otherwise set forth in this Agreement, and that we will have no duty to oversee the application by a Representative Payee of any funds withdrawn from the Account. You agree that, if any deposit to an Account is subsequently reversed, whether by the Social Security Administration or otherwise, we may transfer funds in other Accounts held by the beneficiary or the Representative Payee in order to cure any overdraft that may occur as a result of such reversal. You agree to save, indemnify, defend, and hold us harmless from any claim, demand, suit, or other charge by any person or entity arising out of or resulting from the establishment, maintenance, and transaction of any business related to a Social Security Representative Payee Account or any other Account designated for the receipt of government benefits.

Checks and Withdrawals

1. Payment Authorization. You authorize us to pay checks signed by you and charge the payments against the applicable Account. Only checks or other methods approved by us may be used to withdraw funds from your Account. You agree that it will be your responsibility to verify the accuracy of information appearing on any checks, deposit slips or other forms, and you agree that we will not be liable for any printing errors on any such forms. All checks, withdrawal forms, deposit slips and transfer instructions used in connection with any Account must be on forms that we provide or otherwise expressly approve in writing. You agree to complete checks using a non-gel, black or dark blue ink that will transfer well during any imaging of the check. We will not be liable for any resulting losses, and you agree to indemnify and hold us harmless from such losses if you fail to meet your obligations as set forth in this paragraph. In the event that the applicable Account has sufficient funds on deposit to cover one or more, but not all of the checks or other withdrawal orders presented during any given business day, we may honor those items and allow those withdrawals in any order that we may choose in our sole discretion, including honoring first any withdrawal orders or checks payable to us and dishonoring or refusing any other item or withdrawal order for which there are insufficient funds available thereafter. In making distributions upon the death or disability of any Party, you agree that we may rely upon the form of the Account at the time of any such death or disability.

2. Stale Items. We are under no obligation to pay a check that is presented for payment more than six months from its date. In the event that a check drawn on your Account is payable by its terms within a stated period of time, we are under no obligation to pay that check if it is presented after the expiration of that time period.

3. Overdrafts and Overdraft Protection. You agree to maintain funds in your Accounts at all times sufficient to pay any withdrawal order (whether oral, written, or otherwise) or item presented for payment against the applicable Account. We are under no obligation to pay any order or item (i) the amount of which exceeds the available balance in the Account upon which the order was made or the item was drawn, or (ii) that would exceed limitations imposed upon the applicable Account under our policies and procedures or under applicable law, including Federal Reserve Board Regulation D. In the event that we do pay any such item, we will not waive our right to dishonor any subsequent items presented. If we do pay an item, the amount of which exceeds the balance in the Account upon which it is drawn, or if any item deposited to your Account is subsequently returned and charged back to your Account creating an overdraft, you agree to pay us immediately the amount by which that Account is overdrawn together with any fees that we might assess. You also authorize us to deduct any overdraft from your next deposit (including a direct deposit of social security or other government benefits), to withhold or to transfer funds from any other Account to which you are Party in amounts sufficient to cover any overdraft and resulting overdraft fees, or to use any other collection remedy available to us by law. In the event that you write a check or take any other action that would result in an Account becoming overdrawn, and if you have requested and been approved for automatic overdraft protection, such check or action taken shall be deemed to be a request by you to us to transfer available funds from your Savings Account or any other eligible Account, or to make an advance under your TLC line of credit account with us, in increments that we deem sufficient to pay such check or otherwise remedy the overdraft, together with any service charge we may impose. We will use our best efforts to transfer funds from other eligible accounts to your Checking Account, or to make an advance under your TLC with us, in the manner in which you have directed in your application. A fee may be charged for overdraft protection as set forth in the Fee Schedule. If sufficient funds are not available, then any such item presented will be returned to the payee due to insufficient funds and a charge will be made to your Account in such amounts as we may establish from time to time. Each Party to any of your Accounts will be jointly and severally liable for overdrafts caused by any other Party to the Account.

4. Signatures. You authorize us to recognize any of the signatures set forth on the Application in the payment of funds or the transaction of any business for your Accounts. You authorize us to pay a check presented for payment even though the signature or signatures thereon do not correspond exactly with the signatures on the Application. We are not obligated to honor a check unless the signature or signatures do correspond exactly with the signatures on the Application. We may recognize facsimile signatures, signatures imprinted by mechanical devices or any other method of authentication, including orders to pay that are received electronically or telephonically. You agree that we may act upon and rely upon documentation, correspondence or other instructions with respect to your Accounts that we receive by way of electronic or facsimile transmission, including Account agreements, requests to modify Accounts, loan agreements and any other order with respect to your Accounts, and you agree to such verification procedures as we may implement from time to time. You agree that we may maintain copies of Account records, including copies maintained electronically, in lieu of any originals and that any such copies will be considered original records for any purpose, including admissibility in evidence as original records before any court or administrative agency.

5. Postdated, Incomplete and Conditional Items. You agree to hold us harmless from any and all loss and liability that we may incur due to our inadvertent payment of incomplete or postdated items, items endorsed "without recourse," or conditional items. You agree that we will not have any duty to discover or comply with postdated, incomplete, or conditional items. You agree that we may disregard any information on any check or draft other than the amount of the item, the identity of the drawee bank, any magnetically encoded information, and the signature of the drawer, regardless of whether that information is consistent with any other information on the item. You agree that we may decline to accept, process or pay any item or order that, in our estimation, is ambiguous or otherwise unclear in its terms. You also agree that, at our option, we may use our best efforts to resolve any such ambiguity and you agree to release and hold us harmless from any and all loss and liability that we may incur or that may arise in connection with our attempts to resolve any such ambiguity.

6. Wire Transfers, Automated Clearing House (ACH) and Other Payment Order Transactions.

(a) Governing Regulations. If you send or receive a wire transfer, Fedwire may be used. Federal Reserve Board Regulation J is the law that covers transactions made over Fedwire. If you are a party to an Automated Clearing House (ACH) entry, you acknowledge and agree that any such entry will be governed by the National Automated Clearing House Association (NACHA) Operating Rules, the Rules of any local ACH, and the Rules of any other system through which the entry is made. Other payment orders you make may be governed by Article 4A of the Texas Business & Commerce Code.

(b) Notification. Under NACHA Rules, we are not required to give you next day notice of the receipt of an ACH entry and we will not do so, nor will we give you next-day notice of the receipt of a wire transfer. However, we will notify you of these transfers in your Account Statement.

(c) Provisional and Final Payment. If we credit your Account for an ACH entry or a wire transfer, the credit is provisional until we receive final settlement for the payment order. If we do not receive final settlement, or if we credit your Account by mistake, we are entitled to a refund of the amount credited and you agree that, at our option, we may reverse the credit or require that you reimburse us by way of direct payment.

(d) Identifying Account Numbers. You agree that we can rely upon any identifying account number given to us in connection with any ACH or wire transfer, even if the number identifies a person different than the named beneficiary or a financial institution different from the named financial institution. You agree that neither we nor any other institution involved in the transaction has a duty to determine whether the number given matches the intended beneficiary or the named financial institution.

(e) Our Liability; Interest Payable. We may be responsible for your direct expenses if we fail to exercise ordinary care in carrying out your instructions in connection with a wire transfer transaction. In no event, however, will we be liable for any special, indirect, exemplary or consequential damages (including lost profits) of any kind. We are not required to pay interest on any amount we may owe to you due to an unauthorized wire transfer arising out of our error unless you exercise ordinary care to discover the unauthorized transfer and promptly advise us of the relevant facts within the time period set forth below in the Account Statements paragraph. Any rate of interest that we might be obligated to pay to you as a matter of law for a delay or incorrect transfer arising out of our error will be the lower of the federal funds rate at the time of the correction or the dividend rate that we pay on the Account to or from which the funds transfer should have occurred.

(f) Security Procedures. You agree that we may verify the authenticity of payment orders using our security procedures in place at the time of any such order, which may include a combination of signature verification, call back procedures, the use of identifying words or numbers, and identification via employee ID badge, valid driver's license or other photo identification document.

(g) Force Majeure. We are not liable for a failure to execute a payment order according to your instructions if an interruption in communication facilities or some other circumstance beyond our control such as fire or flood prevents the transfer, despite reasonable precautions we have taken.

(h) Cutoff Times. Transfers, payment orders, and communications canceling or amending payment orders received after 2:00 p.m. on each weekday we are open that is not a holiday may be treated as having been received on the next banking day and processed accordingly.

(i) General. You agree that only our forms, methods and procedures may be utilized. You also agree that in the event of an error, we may correct any such error without prior approval by you. Any authorization you make to initiate paperless debit or credit entries will remain in effect until we receive written notice from you that your authorization has been revoked in a manner and in time to provide us with a reasonable opportunity to act on it.

7. Stop Payment. You may stop payment of items drawn on your Accounts. You agree to hold us harmless from any claim, loss, damage or expense that we may incur, including attorney's fees, resulting from our refusing payment of any item on which you have stopped payment or from the payment of any item after your stop payment order has expired. A stop payment order will be effective for six months and may be renewed upon a request made in writing to us. A stop payment order, a renewal of an order or a revocation of any such order shall not be effective unless delivered to us in writing to a member of our staff during our regular business hours and until we have had a reasonable opportunity to act on it. In addition, we will not be liable for the payment of an item over a stop payment order if the order is received after 9:00 a.m. on the next banking day after the banking day on which we received the item. Due to computer systems limitations, we can intercept an item subject to a stop payment order only if the precise amount, date, check number, name of payee and any other information that we may reasonably require is provided. If that information is not provided, we will not be responsible if we are unable to stop payment. If the order is made orally, we have no obligation to honor it. If we do honor an oral stop payment order, it will only be binding for 24 hours after which it must be renewed in writing. Any stop payment order, renewal or revocation will incur a charge as set forth on our Fee Schedule. You agree that we may honor a stop payment order, revocation or renewal if made by the person who signed the check to be stopped or any other person who has signed the Application or is otherwise authorized to transact business relating to the Account. You agree that we will not be liable for any inadvertent payment of any item, notwithstanding a stop payment order, if we have used ordinary care and followed our usual practices in handling such an order. If an item is paid over a valid stop payment order due to our failure to exercise ordinary care, we may be liable to you for any loss you suffer as a result of that inadvertent payment. You agree, however, that it will be your responsibility to establish any such loss. You agree that we will never be liable for more than your actual loss and that we will not be liable for any consequential damages. If we do credit your Account after paying an item over a valid stop payment order, you agree to take whatever action we deem necessary to transfer to us all of your rights against the payee or holder of the item and to assist us if we take legal action against the payee or any other person. For information concerning your right to stop payment of preauthorized electronic fund transfers, please refer to your Electronic Fund Transfers Agreement and Disclosures. You may not stop payment of Credit Union Official Checks issued by us at your request. You may not stop payment of transactions initiated through the use of an ATM card, a check card, or a similar device at an ATM or at a point of sale.

8. Credit Union Liability. Except for losses caused by our failure to exercise ordinary care or our failure to act in good faith, you agree that we will not be liable for any action or inaction regarding the payment or non-payment of items, collection of items, other withdrawals, or the transfer of funds in satisfaction of overdrafts. Subject to applicable law, you agree that we will never be liable for any consequential damages arising out of or related to our obligations under this Agreement.

Deposit of Items

1. Handling of Items. We act only as a collecting agent for any items deposited. Any deposit that we accept will be provisional and will be subject to subsequent payment verification. We are not responsible for any deposit or other transaction initiated by mail until the item is actually received. We will not be responsible for any deposit or other transaction made through the use of our night depository or any other unattended facility until the item or items are actually removed from the depository or facility by our personnel. We will not be responsible for any deposit or other transaction during the course of delivery to us by any courier or other third party until the item or items are actually received by our personnel. We have the right to endorse all checks payable to you for deposit into your Account. We will not be liable for the negligence of any correspondent bank or institution nor for any loss incurred in transit when items are forwarded to correspondents. We will not be liable for any delay as a result of any interruption of communication facilities or any other circumstances beyond our control. We reserve the right to send any item on a collection basis only. Items drawn on institutions located outside of the United States are handled on a collection basis only. You agree to bear the risk of any change in the exchange rate with respect to any items that may be payable in foreign currency. You agree that we may charge back any item before payment without notice, regardless of whether the item has been returned. You agree that, if a check that has been deposited to your Account or cashed by you at the Credit Union is subsequently returned based upon a breach or alleged breach of any transfer warranty, presentment warranty, or otherwise, we may charge back the amount of any such item to your Account at any time without notice. You agree that we may resubmit an item that has been returned to us for payment, and you waive notice that an item has been dishonored or charged back against your Account. You also agree that, if we are charged a fee by any other institution in connection with any of your Accounts, that fee expense may be charged to your Account.

2. Endorsement Standards. The area from the trailing edge of a check to 1.5 inches from the trailing edge of a check is reserved for the payee's endorsement. The trailing edge of a check is defined as the left side of the check looking at it from the front. You and all other endorser must make your endorsement within this prescribed area. If any endorsement or other writing that you or any other endorser makes causes any error or delay in the processing of the item, you agree that you will be liable for any loss that we incur as a result of that delay or error, and you agree to hold us harmless from any such loss.

3. Right to Refuse Deposit. If you request that we accept for deposit a substitute check that has not been created by a financial institution or a check that has already been deposited at a financial institution but returned, we are under no obligation to accept the check for deposit. If we do, however, you agree to hold us harmless from any loss or liability, including consequential damages, attorney's fees, and expenses that may arise because of our acceptance of the item. In any event, in our discretion, we may refuse any deposit, limit the amount that may be deposited, accept all or any part of a deposit for collection only, return all or any part of any deposit, or close the Account subject to applicable regulations.

4. Deposit Verification. If you make a deposit and we subsequently determine that the amount of the deposit initially credited was incorrect, we may correct any such error and make corresponding adjustments to your Account in order to reflect the correction.

General Provisions

1. Taxpayer Identification Number and Backup Withholding. The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) requires most recipients of dividends and other payments to give taxpayer identification numbers to credit unions and other payers who must report the payments to the IRS. The IRS uses the numbers for identification purposes. Credit unions and other payers must be given the numbers regardless of whether recipients are required to file tax returns. Credit unions and other payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable dividends and certain other payments to a payee who does not furnish a taxpayer identification number. Certain penalties may also apply. In the event that (i) you have been notified by the IRS that you are subject to backup withholding due to payee underreporting and you have not received a notice from the IRS that the backup withholding has been terminated or (ii) you provide us with an incorrect taxpayer identification number, the Credit Union is required to withhold payment, in part, of dividends owing to you in amounts determined by the IRS and to pay the dividends withheld to the IRS.

2. Dormant Accounts. If your Account becomes dormant, we may impose a Dormant Account Administration fee under terms as disclosed in our Truth in Savings Fee Schedule. An Account is defined as dormant if for six months or more there has not been a debit or credit to the Account because of an act by you or your agent (other than us) and you have not communicated with us. An Account is presumed abandoned if (i) the Account has been dormant for at least five years from the date of your last transaction on the Account or your last correspondence with us, and (ii) we are unable to locate you. If an Account is presumed abandoned, we are required to report the abandonment and to pay the funds in the Account to the State.

3. Account Statements. You are responsible for promptly examining each Account statement. Any objection that you may have respecting any unauthorized withdrawal, any payment order (including a wire transfer), or any other item or deposit shown on or missing from a statement, except for electronic fund transfers and claims related to substitute checks, will be waived unless made in writing to us, and received on or before the 33rd day following the date the statement is mailed or is otherwise made available, subject to applicable law. You agree that we will not be liable for any unauthorized withdrawal, any payment order, any forged, unauthorized, or altered item drawn on or deposited to your Account, any item with missing signatures or endorsements, any missing or diverted deposit, or any other error or discrepancy if you fail to notify us within that 33-day period, nor will we be liable for any forged or altered item if the forgery or alteration is not readily ascertainable upon inspection. You agree that no legal action may or will be instituted by you against us seeking the recovery of any alleged loss as a result of the payment of a forged, unauthorized, or altered item or as a result of any missing or diverted deposit, or due to any other error or discrepancy, unless you have provided us with notice within the period prescribed above and any such legal action shall have been instituted within two years after the date that the statement containing any such error was mailed or otherwise made available to you. Please refer to your Electronic Fund Transfers Agreement and Disclosures to determine your notification obligations in the event of unauthorized electronic fund transfers or other errors in connection with such transfers. Your Funds Availability Policy discloses your notification obligations for claims related to substitute checks.

Unless we adopt alternative procedures from time to time, checks drawn on your Account will not be returned to you and copies of checks will be made available to you upon your request, subject to any fee disclosed in the Fee Schedule. You agree that your duty to examine statements promptly and your obligation to notify us in the event of any error is not waived or diminished in any respect by our retention of checks drawn on your Account.

You will receive an Account statement monthly for your Checking Accounts. You will receive an Account statement at least quarterly for your Savings Accounts. It is your responsibility to ensure that your statements are received, and you agree that we will not be responsible for the loss or theft of your statements. You agree to notify us immediately if you fail to receive a statement for your Checking Accounts monthly or a statement for your Savings Accounts at least quarterly. It is important that you make note of the time that you regularly receive your statement. You agree to notify us immediately and in any event within ten days of that time, if you fail to receive your statement. You agree, further, to notify us immediately and in any event within 30 days of any changes to your address or other personal or business information on file with us.

You acknowledge that we employ an automated collection procedure in order to more efficiently handle the high volume of items we process, and for that reason our procedures generally do not include sight-review of items. You acknowledge and agree that reasonable commercial standards do not require us to sight review every check presented and that any failure to sight review does not constitute a lack of ordinary care in the payment of any item.

4. Legal Process. You agree that we may debit your Account for charges and costs, including attorney's fees, in connection with negotiations, responses, appearances and the production of statements, items, or other documents pursuant to subpoenas, court orders, levies, garnishments or other instruments of legal process to the extent not otherwise prohibited by law. You agree that any levy, attachment or garnishment against your Account will be subject to our contractual and statutory liens set forth below, and you authorize us to exercise that contractual lien whether or not any outstanding obligation is in default, subject to applicable law.

5. Statutory Lien. Federal law grants us the right to impress a lien on all funds in any Account that you have with us if you are in default or otherwise fail to satisfy a financial obligation with us. We may exercise this right without further notice to you. This lien applies to all Accounts that you have with us, to the extent permitted by law, including Accounts that you hold jointly with another person.

6. Contractual Lien. Unless otherwise prohibited by applicable law or our policies and procedures, you may pledge all or any part of your shares and deposits as security for any loan. In addition to any lien we have as a matter of law, you grant us a contractual lien on all shares, deposits and accrued dividends in any Account in which you have an interest to the extent of any loans made to you and any other obligation of yours that you owe to us, which lien secures repayment of any such loan or obligation to the extent not prohibited under the federal Truth in Lending Act. You are not giving a security interest in any shares or deposits in an IRA or any other Account, which if pledged would result in the loss of special tax treatment under the Internal Revenue Code. You agree that, if any such Account is a Multiple Party Account, the entire amount in such Account shall be subject to our lien and shall secure the indebtedness of each Owner owing to us. You agree that we may exercise our lien and apply the entire amount in any such Account against the indebtedness of any Owner owing to us notwithstanding the interest of any other Owner in the Account, and without notice. You agree to pay us all expenses and costs, including attorney's fees, that we may incur in defending or enforcing our right to exercise our lien against the indebtedness of any one or more Owners, and you agree that we will not be liable for dishonoring checks or other items where the exercise of our lien or any right of offset that may exist results in there being insufficient funds in the Account to honor such items. If we cash a check for you over the counter at your request and any such check is subsequently returned unpaid for any reason, you agree that we may charge the amount of the item against your Account. If we elect not to enforce our lien at any time, we do not waive our right to enforce that lien on subsequent occasions. The lien secures all direct and indirect indebtedness that you may owe to us whether as a borrower, co-maker, guarantor or otherwise. You agree that, with regard to any indebtedness owing to us secured by your principal residence, our lien on shares and deposits shall not be construed so as to diminish or forfeit any security interest in or indebtedness secured by such residence, nor shall our lien be construed so as to permit the modification of any claim we may have under 11 U.S.C. §1322(b)(2), and to the extent that this lien is so construed, it is hereby waived and shall be void.

7. Dispute Resolution. If (i) we suspect that fraudulent misconduct is or has taken place with respect to any Account, (ii) we are notified that a Party to an Account has died or is incompetent to manage his or her affairs, (iii) we have been notified that a dispute exists between or among Parties to the Account or third parties with regard to their respective interests in the Account, (iv) there are competing claims to funds on deposit or (v) we are in doubt concerning the respective interests of any Parties to an Account, we may restrict withdrawals from the Account until we are satisfied that any obligation we may have at law and under this Agreement has been met or until any such dispute, doubt, suspected fraudulent misconduct or probate matter has been resolved by a court of competent jurisdiction or by written settlement agreement entered into by all Parties to the Account and any third party making claim to funds in any such Account. You agree that we may recover any attorney's fees or costs expended in connection with the foregoing, which fees will be payable by you directly or out of the Account made the subject of any such doubt, dispute, misconduct or probate proceeding, or out of any other Account in which you have an interest. You agree, further, that the Credit Union may impose withdrawal limitations on any of your Accounts at any time, including your ability to access your Accounts electronically or otherwise, if you are delinquent under any obligation you owe to the Credit Union.

8. Power of Attorney. You agree that we shall be under no obligation to recognize and honor any power of attorney that authorizes someone to deal with your Account on your behalf. Transactions involving custodial Accounts, such as withdrawals, deposits, and investment changes, may be made by an agent duly authorized pursuant to a durable power of attorney legally enforceable under applicable law if such power of attorney clearly and specifically authorizes such transactions, except that we will not accept the use of a power of attorney to effect changes to any beneficiary designations.

9. Withdrawal of Services. In the event that any member causes us a loss or makes known his or her intention to cause us a loss, whether by way of loan default, Account overdraft, or otherwise, or in the event that any Credit Union member has been abusive in the conduct of his or her affairs with the Credit Union, it is our policy to withdraw member services otherwise extended to that member, including but not limited to the right to maintain certain Accounts, the right to payment of certain dividends, and the availability of electronic fund transfers services, and you agree that we may do so. Unless expelled from membership, members have a right to maintain a primary Savings Account and to vote in annual and special meetings. Under certain circumstances, services may be reinstated if any loss caused to the Credit Union is subsequently cured.

10. Closing the Account. Any Party to an Account may close the Account at any time, except that no Joint Owner may close the Membership Share Account of a member or reduce the balance of any such Account below the par value of one share. We reserve the right to require the written consent of all Account Owners to close a joint Account. Your right to close an Account is subject to any statutory or contractual lien existing in our favor and any legal process levied against any such Account. If we pay any item or payment order after your Account is closed, you agree to reimburse us. We may close any Account at any time and disburse funds on deposit in any such Account to the Owners of the Account or to us in satisfaction of any obligation owing to us, in any manner we deem appropriate, if (i) any of the events set forth in the preceding paragraphs 7 or 9 should arise, (ii) we believe that we may suffer a loss if the Account is not closed or we believe that the volume of Account activity exceeds that which we can reasonably and safely process, (iii) we determine that any Party to the Account or party claiming an interest in the Account has been abusive in the use of the Account or in the conduct of his or her affairs with the Credit Union, or (iv) there has been a change in Account ownership or a change with regard to the persons authorized to sign on the Account.

11. Bylaw Requirements. You must maintain your membership share in the Credit Union to retain membership. If you fail to complete payment of your membership share within six months of admission to membership or within six months from an increase in the par value of shares, or if you reduce your share balance below the par value of one share and do not increase the balance to at least the par value of one share within six months of the reduction, your membership may be terminated.

12. Death or Incompetence of Account Owner. We may continue to accept deposits to an Account, to pay items drawn against an Account, to pay other payment orders against an Account and allow any other transactions with respect to an Account until we are notified of an Account Owner's death or of an adjudication of incompetence and we have a reasonable opportunity to act upon any such notice. Subject to our policies and procedures, and subject to any separate agreement we may enter into with any surviving Account holder, once we are notified of a Owner's death or adjudicated incompetence, we may pay items drawn against the Account or other payment orders authorized by the deceased Account Owner for a period of ten days after the Account Owner's death unless we are ordered to stop payment by a person claiming an interest in the Account. We may require any person claiming an interest in the Account to indemnify us against any losses arising out of the payment of any such claim, and this Agreement will be binding upon the heirs or legal representatives of any deceased Account Owner or any Account Owner who is adjudicated incompetent. We may continue to pay dividends on an Account following the death of an Account Owner. If any surviving Joint Owner is a member of the Credit Union, we may require that the Account be closed and that the funds be transferred to the surviving Joint Owner's Account.

13. Attorney's Fees. In addition to any other rights we may have at law or under this Agreement to recover fees and costs, we shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees and costs expended in connection with the enforcement of this Agreement and the defense of any rights we may have under this Agreement, and you authorize the Credit Union to deduct any such fees and costs from your Account without prior notice to you.

14. Amendment. You agree that we may add to, change or delete the terms of this Agreement, the Truth-In-Savings Account Disclosures and Rate and Fee Schedules, and any notice, agreement or policy made a part of this Agreement, from time to time in our sole discretion, subject to applicable law.

15. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement shall be declared invalid, unenforceable or illegal, that provision will not affect the validity, enforceability or legality of any other provision.

16. Reopened Accounts. Should your Account be closed one or more times by withdrawal of the balance of the Account and later reopened by you, such reopened Account shall be subject to all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, whether or not any new signature card or other Account agreement is signed.

17. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by the Federal Credit Union Act, the Rules and Regulations of the National Credit Union Administration, the Credit Union's Bylaws, and solely to the extent not pre-empted by federal law, the laws of the State of Texas. Subject to applicable law, you acquiesce and submit to personal jurisdiction in the State of Texas and venue is proper in Dallas County, Texas.

18. Credit Reports. You authorize us to check your credit and employment history, and to request and use credit reports when considering any application to open an Account or any application for related financial services. We may report information about your share and loan accounts to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments or other defaults on your accounts may be reflected in your credit report.

ELECTRONIC FUND TRANSFERS AGREEMENT AND DISCLOSURES

Telephone Number for Notification of Unauthorized Use, Stop Payment of Preauthorized Transfers, and Error Resolution: 800.322.2709 or 214.880.0141.

Agreement

1. Issuance of Card or Personal Identification Number. In this Agreement and Disclosures ("Agreement"), the words "you," "your," and "Party" refer to any person to whom an Advancial Federal Credit Union ATM Card or VISA, Check Card (collectively, "Card") is issued, any person to whom a Personal Identification Number ("PIN") is issued in connection with any such Card or other electronic fund transfer service, any person authorized to use or given access to use to any such Card or PIN, and any owner on any Credit Union Account which may be accessed by the Card or the PIN. The words "we," "us," "our," and "Credit Union" refer to Advancial Federal Credit Union. You agree that any use of a Card or PIN by you shall be governed by the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, as well as the terms of your Membership and Account Agreement with us, which is incorporated into this Agreement by reference.

2. Overdrafts. You agree that you will not use your Card or PIN to withdraw or transfer funds from your Account in amounts exceeding the available balance in your Account at the time of any such transfer. You agree that we will be under no obligation to make a withdrawal or transfer if there are insufficient funds in your Account. If your Account has sufficient funds to cover one or more but not all checks, withdrawal orders, or electronic fund transfers during any given business day, we may honor those items, allow those withdrawals, or make any such electronic fund transfers in any order that we choose in our sole discretion, including first honoring any such checks, orders, or transfers payable to us, and dishonoring or refusing any item, order, or transfer for which there are insufficient funds available thereafter. If you have applied and been approved for overdraft protection with us, you agree that your use of the Card and PIN shall be subject to the Overdrafts and Overdraft Protection section of the Membership and Account Agreement.

3. Card Security. You agree to keep your Card and PIN in a place of safekeeping, to refrain from disclosing your PIN to any third party, to refrain from writing your PIN on your Card, and to refrain from recording or displaying your PIN in such a manner that it will be accessible by third parties. You agree that the use of the Card or PIN by (i) you, (ii) any other applicant, (iii) any Party to any of your Accounts that may be accessed by the Card, (iv) anyone you permit or authorize to use your Card or PIN, and (v) anyone to whom you disclose your PIN or give access to your Card or PIN shall be deemed an authorized use for which you shall be liable. You are responsible for reporting the loss or theft of your Card or PIN to us as soon as possible after the loss or theft.

4. Surrender, Cancellation, and Amendment. You agree to surrender your Card to us upon demand. You agree, further, that the Card and all PINs shall at all times remain our property and that we may terminate any one or more electronic fund transfer services or cancel this Agreement at any time, subject to such notification as may be required by applicable law. We may terminate your EFT services, for example, if you are abusive in the use of your EFT services, including repeated overdrafts. You also agree that we may add to, change, or delete the terms of this Agreement from time to time, subject to such notification as may be required by applicable law. You may terminate this Agreement at any time by notifying us in writing, but you remain liable for all transactions you make or authorize both before and after any termination.

5. Preauthorization Holds. When you use your Card at certain merchants such as self-service gas stations, restaurants, hotels, airlines, and rental car companies, the merchant may request a preauthorization hold to cover the final transaction amount. The preauthorization hold may be in an amount greater than the actual purchase amount and may be placed on your Account for up to five days. You may not access funds that are subject to a preauthorization hold. Preauthorization holds may remain on your Account for up to five days after the transaction, even after the transaction has been paid. In addition, even after a preauthorization hold is released, the transaction may be posted to your Account at any time. As a result, you must ensure that sufficient funds are available and remain in your Account to pay for your Card transactions. Preauthorization holds affect the availability of funds to pay for checks drawn on your Account and other withdrawal transactions. You acknowledge and agree that we are not liable for any damages you may incur for dishonor of items or other transactions because of a preauthorization hold placed on your Account funds.

6. Additional Provisions. You agree that the Credit Union shall be entitled to recover any money owed by you as a result of your use of the Card and you agree to repay any amounts that create an overdrawn balance immediately upon demand. We may waive or decline to enforce any of our rights under this Agreement without affecting any of our other rights. Should any provision of this Agreement and Disclosures be determined to be invalid or unenforceable, that determination shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision.

You are deemed to have authorized these transfers if you sign an authorization or if you engage in the transaction after receiving notice that the transfer will be treated as an electronic fund transfer.

2. Additional Transfer Limitations. Your primary Savings Account must maintain a minimum daily balance of $5 at all times and you may not make transfers or withdrawals that would cause your balance to fall below the required minimum daily balance.

In addition, preauthorized, automatic, and telephonic (including data transmission) transfers from Savings Accounts are limited by federal regulation to no more than six per month. This includes automatic transfers made by overdraft protection from Savings Accounts and automatic transfers from Savings Accounts made by way of our audio response and home banking systems. Call us or write to us at the telephone number or address listed in these disclosures in time for us to receive your request three business days or more before the payment is scheduled to be made. If you call, we may also require you to put your request in writing and get it to us within 14 days after you call.

(b) Notice of Varying Amounts. If these regular payments may vary in amount, the person or company you are going to pay will tell you, ten days before each payment, when it will be made and how much it will be. You may choose instead to get this notice only when the payment would differ by more than a certain amount from the previous payment or when the amount would fall outside certain limits that you set.

- (c) In order to comply with government agency or court orders, or
- (d) If you give us your written permission.

9. Your Liability for Unauthorized Transfers and Advisability of Prompt Reporting. Tell us AT ONCE if you believe your Card or PIN has been lost or stolen, or if you believe that an electronic fund transfer has been made without your permission using information from your check. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. You could lose all the money in your Account.

(a) For Point-of-Sale Transactions with Your VISA

Check Card. If you believe your Card or PIN has been lost or stolen, you will not be liable once you notify us that someone may or has used your Card or PIN without your permission. The foregoing liability limitation does not apply if you are grossly negligent or fraudulent in the handling of your Account or your Card. In those cases, your liability will be determined under the standards set forth below for all other transactions.

(b) For All Other Transactions. If you tell us within two business days, you can lose no more than $50 if someone used your Card or PIN without your permission. If you do NOT tell us within two business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your Card or PIN, and we can prove we could have stopped someone from using your Card or PIN without your permission if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500.

Also, if your statement shows transfers that you did not make, including those made by Card, PIN, or other means, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was mailed to you, you may not get back any money you lost after the 60 days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us in time.

If a good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods.

10. Credit Union's Liability. If we do not complete a transfer to or from your Account on time or in the correct amount according to our agreement with you, we will be liable for your losses or damages. However, there are some exceptions. We will NOT be liable, for instance:

- If, through no fault of ours, you do not have enough money in your Account to make the transfer.
- If the terminal or system where you are making the transfer does not have enough cash.
- If the ATM or system was not working properly and you knew about the breakdown when you started the transfer.
- If circumstances beyond our control (such as fire or flood) prevent the transfer, despite reasonable precautions that we have taken.
- If the funds in your Account are subject to an administrative hold, legal process, or other claim.
- If the failure to properly complete the transaction is caused by erroneous information supplied by you or your agent.
- If you have closed the Account from which you have preauthorized electronic fund transfers to occur.
- There may be other exceptions stated in our agreement with you.

11. In Case of Errors or Questions about Your Electronic Transfers. Call or write us at the telephone number or address listed in these disclosures as soon as you can if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer listed on the statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared.

- Tell us your name and Account number.
- Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

If you tell us orally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing within ten business days. We will determine whether an error occurred within ten business days after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to 45 days to investigate your complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will provisionally credit your Account within ten business days for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. For VISA Check Card point-of-sale (non-ATM) transactions, we will provisionally credit your Account within five business days for the amount you think is in error unless we determine that the circumstances or your Account history warrants a delay of up to ten business days. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within ten business days, we may not credit your Account.

For errors involving new Accounts, point-of-sale or foreign-initiated transactions, we may take up to 90 days to investigate your complaint or question. For new Accounts, we may take up to 20 business days to credit your Account for the amount you think is in error.

We will tell you the results within three business days after completing our investigation. If we decide that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation. You may ask for copies of the documents that we used in our investigation.

12. VISA Check Card International Transactions. If you effect an international transaction with your VISA Check Card, the rate of exchange between the transaction currency and the billing currency used for processing the international transaction will be: (i) a rate selected by VISA from the range of rates available in wholesale currency markets for the applicable central processing date, which rate may vary from the rate VISA itself receives, or (ii) the government mandated rate in effect for the applicable central processing date. We will charge up to 1% International Transaction Fee in U.S. dollars for each international purchase, account credit and cash advance transaction.

13. Illegal Transactions. You agree that you will not cause or allow your Card or PIN to be used in any manner or for any transaction that we believe poses an undue risk of illegality, and we may refuse to authorize any such use or transaction. If you use your Card or PIN for a transaction that is determined to be illegal, you will be liable for the transaction. You waive any right to take legal action against the Credit Union for your illegal use of your Card or PIN and agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Credit Union and VISA International, Inc. from and against any lawsuits, other legal action, or liability that results directly or indirectly from such illegal use.

14. ATM Safety Precautions. Exercise discretion when using an ATM or night deposit facility. Observe basic safety precautions. Prepare for any ATM transactions prior to approaching the ATM or night deposit facility. Retain your receipts, and do not leave them at the ATM or night deposit facility. Do not lend your Card to anyone, and do not leave your Card or any other documents at the ATM or any night deposit facility. Keep your PIN secret and memorize it. Do not give anyone information regarding your Card or PIN over the telephone. When using an ATM, place your body in a position so that you will prevent others from observing your PIN when entered. At any ATM or night deposit facility, keep a lookout for any suspicious activity near the facility and assure yourself that the facility and all approaches to the facility are well lighted. Conceal cash received from an ATM to the best of your ability and count it after you have left the ATM. If anyone offers assistance while you are operating an ATM, do not accept it. If you have begun a transaction, consider canceling the transaction and leaving the ATM location. Finally, compare your receipts against the statements you receive and notify us immediately if you suspect that an error or unauthorized transaction has occurred.

FUNDS AVAILABILITY POLICY

Except for the disclosures below relating to substitute checks, the following policy applies to deposits into Advancial Federal Credit Union transaction Accounts only, including deposits at any of our shared branch locations. The term "transaction Accounts" includes all checking Accounts. We may delay the availability of funds deposited into other Accounts for longer periods. Please ask a member services representative if you should have a question about the availability of funds deposited into any of your Accounts.

Your ability to withdraw funds

Our policy is to make funds from your cash and check deposits available to you on the first business day after we receive your deposit. Electronic direct deposits will be available on the day we receive the deposit. Once they are available, you can withdraw the funds in cash and we will use the funds to pay checks that you have written.

Please remember that even after we have made funds available to you and you have withdrawn the funds, you are still responsible for checks you deposit that are returned to us unpaid and for any other problems involving your deposit.

For determining the availability of your deposits, every day is a business day, except Saturdays, Sundays, and federal holidays. We have different deposit cut-off hours at our deposit locations. Cut-off hours are posted at each deposit location. If you make a deposit before the cut-off hour on a business day that we are open, we will consider that day to be the day of your deposit. However, if you make a deposit after the cut-off hour or on a day we are not open, we will consider that the deposit was made on the next business day we are open.

Holds on Other Funds

If we cash a check for you that is drawn on another financial institution, we may withhold the availability of a corresponding amount of funds that are already in your Account. Those funds will be available at the time funds from the check we cashed would have been available if you had deposited it.

If we accept for deposit a check that is drawn on another financial institution, we may make funds from the deposit available for withdrawal immediately but delay your availability to withdraw a corresponding amount of funds that you have on deposit in another Account with us. The funds in the other Account would then not be available for withdrawal until the time periods that are described elsewhere in this disclosure for the type of check that you deposited.

Longer Delays May Apply

In some cases, we will not make all of the funds that you deposit by check available to you on the first business day after the date of your deposit. Depending on the type of check that you deposit, funds may not be available until the second business day after the day of your deposit. However, the first $100 of your deposits will be available on the first business day after the day of your deposit. If we are not going to make all of the funds from your deposit available on the first business day, we will notify you at the time you make your deposit. We will also tell you when the funds will be available. If your deposit is not made directly to one of our employees, or we decide to take this action after you have left the premises, we will mail you the notice by the day after we receive your deposit.

If you will need the funds from a deposit right away, you should ask us when the funds will be available.

In addition, funds you deposit by check may be delayed for a longer period under the following circumstances:

- We believe a check you deposit will not be paid

- You deposit checks totaling more than $5,000 on any one day
- You redeposit a check that has been returned unpaid
- You have overdrawn your Account repeatedly in the last six months
- There is an emergency, such as failure of communications or computer equipment

We will notify you if we delay your ability to withdraw funds for any of these reasons, and we will tell you when the funds will be available. They will generally be available no later than the seventh business day after the day of your deposit.

Special Rules for New Accounts

If you are a new member, the following special rules will apply during the first 30 days your Account is open. Funds from electronic direct deposits into your Account will be available on the day we receive the deposit. Funds from deposits of cash, wire transfers, and the first $5,000 of a day's total deposits of cashier's, certified, teller's, traveler's, and federal, state and local government checks will be available on the first business day after the day of your deposit if the deposit meets certain conditions. For example, the checks must be payable to you (and you may have to use a special deposit slip). The excess over $5,000 will be available on the ninth business day after the day of your deposit. If your deposit of these checks (other than a U.S. Treasury Check) is not made in person to one of our employees, the first $5,000 will not be available until the second business day after the day of your deposit. Funds from all other check deposits will be available on the tenth business day after the day of your deposit.

SUBSTITUTE CHECKS AND YOUR RIGHTS

Important Information about Check 21 and Your Credit Union Share Accounts

Notice - The following information applies to all consumer share Accounts which are used primarily for a personal, family or household purpose.

What Is a Substitute Check?

To make check processing faster, a federal law called the Check 21 Act permits financial institutions to replace original checks or share drafts with "substitute checks." These checks are similar in size to original checks with a slightly reduced image of the front and back of the original check. The front of a substitute check states: "This is a legal copy of your check. You can use it the same way you would use the original check." You may use a substitute check as proof of payment just like the original check.

Some or all of the share drafts that you receive back from us may be substitute checks. This notice describes rights you have when you receive substitute checks from us. The rights in this notice do not apply to original checks or share drafts or to electronic debits to your Account. However, you have rights under other law with respect to those transactions.

What Are My Rights Regarding Substitute Checks?

In certain cases, federal law provides a special procedure that allows you to request a refund for losses you suffer if a substitute check is posted to your Account (for example, if you think that we withdrew the wrong amount from your Account or that we withdrew money from your Account more than once for the same check). The losses you may attempt to recover under this procedure may include the amount that was withdrawn from your Account and fees that were charged as a result of the withdrawal (for example, bounced check fees). The amount of your refund under this procedure is limited to the amount of your loss or the amount of the substitute check, whichever is less. You also are entitled to interest on the amount of your refund if your Account is a dividend-bearing Account. If your loss exceeds the amount of the substitute check, you may be able to recover additional amounts under other law.

If you use this procedure, you may receive up to $2,500 of your refund (plus interest if your Account earns dividends) within 10 business days after we received your claim and the remainder of your refund (plus interest if your Account earns dividends) not later than 45 calendar days after we received your claim.

We may reverse the refund (including any interest on the refund) if we later are able to demonstrate that the substitute check was correctly posted to your Account.

How Do I Make a Claim for a Refund?

If you believe that you have suffered a loss relating to a substitute check that you received and that was posted to your Account, please contact us in writing at Advancial Federal Credit Union, 1845 Woodall Rodgers Freeway, Suite 1300, Dallas, TX 75201-2260. You must contact us within 60 calendar days of the date that we mailed (or otherwise delivered by a means to which you agreed) the substitute check in question or the Account statement showing that the substitute check was posted to your Account, whichever is later. We will extend this time period if you were not able to make a timely claim because of extraordinary circumstances.

Your claim must include:

- A description of why you have suffered a loss (for example, you think the amount withdrawn was incorrect);
- An estimate of the amount of your loss;
- An explanation of why the substitute check you received is insufficient to confirm that you suffered a loss; and
- A copy of the substitute check or the following information to help us identify the substitute check: Check number, the name of the person to whom you wrote the check, and the amount of the check.

MEMBER CONDUCT POLICY

The purpose of this policy is to protect the employees and members of Advancial Federal Credit Union (the "Credit Union") from abusive members and members that cause a loss to the Credit Union. This policy is not enacted to restrict the rights or freedoms of anyone, but rather to address certain unacceptable conduct in order to assure the rights and protection of the Credit Union's employees and its general membership.

The Board of Directors believes that all members and employees should be able to conduct business without fear of harassment or abusive conduct as a result of their membership or employment with the Credit Union. The Board of Directors recognizes that the Credit Union's outstanding reputation is due in large part to the loyalty, commitment and continued efforts of its employees. The Board is committed to treating the employees of the Credit Union with the respect they deserve and is committed to endeavoring to maintain a work place free from any type of abuse.

In the event that any member of the Credit Union or his/her account joint owner or joint borrower (collectively referred to herein as "account joint owner") shall engage in any type of abusive conduct, the Chief Executive Officer or his/her designee, on behalf of the Board and in the Chief Executive Officer's or his/her designee's sole discretion, is hereby authorized to impose sanctions against any member or his/her account joint owner who engages in any type of abusive conduct.

In that regard, any or all of the following sanctions may be imposed against a member and/or his/her account joint owner who has engaged in abusive conduct:

1. Denial of all services other than a member's right to maintain a share account and right to vote at annual and special meetings.
2. Denial of services which involve personal contact with Credit Union employees.
3. Request to leave the Credit Union premises.
4. Taking any other action deemed necessary under the circumstances that is not expressly precluded by the Federal Credit Union Act, the National Credit Union Administration Rules and Regulations, or the Credit Union's Bylaws.

For purposes of this policy "abusive conduct" includes but not by way of limitation, any of the following conduct:

Any type of harassment, including sexual, ethnic, or racial harassment; making racial or ethnic slurs; engaging in sexual conduct; making sexual overtures; making sexual flirtations, advances or propositions; engaging in verbal abuse of a sexual, racial or ethnic nature; making graphic or degrading comments about an individual or his/ her appearance; displaying sexually suggestive objects or pictures; engaging in offensive or abusive physical contact; making false, vicious or malicious statements about any Credit Union employee or the Credit Union and its services, operations, policies, practices or management; using profane, abusive, intimidating or threatening language towards Credit Union employees or fellow members; attempting to coerce or interfere with Credit Union employees in the performance of their duties at any time; conducting or attempting to conduct or engage in any fraudulent, dishonest or deceptive activity of any kind involving Credit Union employees or Credit Union services; any posting, defacing or removing notices or signs on Credit Union premises; writing on Credit Union bulletin boards without management authorization; appropriation or misappropriation of Credit Union funds, property or other material proprietary to the Credit Union; immoral conduct or indecency on Credit Union premises; deliberate or repeated violations of security procedures or safety rules; possession use or being under the influence of drugs or alcoholic substances on Credit Union premises; fighting or possession of weapons of any kind on Credit Union premises.

In the event that any member of Advancial Federal Credit Union or his/her account joint owner causes, or makes known his/her intention to cause a financial loss to the Credit Union, whether by way of loan default, bankruptcy discharge, account overdraft or otherwise, or should a member or his/her account joint owner default under the terms of any existing loan maintained with the Credit Union, or should a member or his/her account joint owner take any action that would render all or a part of his/her obligations owing to the Credit Union unenforceable, it is the policy of Advancial Federal Credit Union to withhold Credit Union services to that member and/or his/her account joint owner to the extent permitted by law. Credit Union services include, without limitation, the maintenance of share accounts, share draft accounts, debit cards, money market accounts, time deposits, check cashing privileges, ATM availability and further extensions of credit. Members may not name a person as a joint owner or joint borrower on their accounts if that person has caused a loss to the Credit Union.

If a member or account joint owner enters into a valid and enforceable Reaffirmation Agreement with Advancial Federal Credit Union that is not rescinded by that member or account joint owner, reaffirming all of that member's or account joint owner's obligations existing prior to the filing of the member's or account joint owner's Petition in Bankruptcy, the foregoing policy with respect to the denial of Credit Union services and further extensions of credit to the member may be waived.

If the Credit Union perceives that the member's or account joint owner's failure or inability to reaffirm all of his/her pre-petition obligations to the Credit Union is beyond that member's or account joint owner's control, and the member or account joint owner nevertheless continues voluntarily repaying his/her pre-petition obligations, the Credit Union, at its option, may accept and consider future credit applications.
